The following is a letter written by Joseph Jacobs, Sr. on Dec. 5, 1852, to his children, John B. and William Jacobs:

Affectionate Children- I once more take my pen in hand to inform you that we are all in usual health at this time and hope these lines find you all well. I will now informe you that I came home from Illinois on the 1st. I was gaun 7 weeks. I moved Jackson Feely out to Effingham County. I found it to be what I call a Beautiful Country. I located 20 acres of timber and 160 of Perary The timber and perary lies two miles apart. They say that thare is some milk sick thare. Thare is not so good Chances to get land thare as thare was some time ago. All the timber and perary that is Joining is taken up. They are locating land very fast thare at this time. If I can sell the 50 acres that James is on I intend moving out again this winter or in the spring.

I think my Perary is all as good as any of the littel bottoms along the branch of my place or on Srtaight Creek about here. If you have any Notion of going out thare or any other whare and can sell go ahead but if you go thare you will have some troubel to make a start. It will cost 2 Dollars per acre to Perary Broke the first time then you can go ahead after it is once broke and fenced. If I can sell and the Rest of you will go with me I think that I shall move to that Country but not on my own account but for the benefit of the rest of you. If I go I never will as well situated as I am here. I located about 6 miles from Levi. My timber lies 2 miles east of a grist mill and saw mill, on the littel wabash my perary. If I go out again I think I will give you a call. I would like for you all to go and see for your selves if you could that has any Notion of Moving thare. Write to me when you Receive this and let me no how you are getting along. fare well.

Joseph Jacobs

William - I would like to know how you got along with your house and if it put you much in Det.

Physician's statement relative to William Jacobs. of Brown Co Ohio.

1st. I learned from his family; that he was born in Kentucky Feb. 1800. & came to Ohio in 1802. & has resided within the limits of Brown Co, ever since.

2nd. He is a hatter by trade, & followed hatting until he was 30 years old, & then thinking the business disagreed with his health, he quit it, & has been farming ever since.

3rd. His general heath has been about an average.

4th. About 20 years ago he ~~was~~ became slightly mentally deranged, which lasted about 3 years, he recovered without treatment.

5th. Has had slight palsy about 16 years.

6th. The cause of the above named mental derangement is unknown to his family but he says it was religious

7th. They know no cause producing the palsy.

8th. Present condition, as I learn by observation & enquiry. Hee is free from all infectious disease & vermine.

9th. Appears sane on all subjects, Except that of religion.

10th. The disease is not hereditary.

11th. Hee is not Epileptic.

12th. Has not attempted violence.

13th. I suppose the exciting cause to be ~~that~~ the extension of the nervous lesion producing the palsy.

14th. I commenced treating him in Oct 1858. Treatment restored the secretions of the liver, Skin, & Kidneys. The kidneys were the most difficult to keep acting healthily.

Counter-irritation along the Spine & Sponging. Then tonics were used, (principally the Ferruginous). I think he improved some under the use of tonics,- but he was so averse to taking medicine, that I could not use them to the extent I desired. ~~the~~

I next gave Strychnine, & if this drug produced any effect on his condition it was favorable. He was irregularly under treatment about 3 months; but has taken but very little medicine during the last 9 months.

15th. He has sustained excellent character, peaceable quiet & kind- but rather of a melancholy habit.

16th. He now shuns society, & dont want people to know any thing ails him, He has been an excellent church member for a number of years; but now will not go to church or read the Bible. Says it was at church he first felt himself condemned as one of the reprobates. If he reads any print, or engages in conversation on any subject,- from some word or remark he will draw evidence of his condemnation 17th. His progenitors as far as I can learn have been mentally healthy.

18th. The conclusion to which I came as to the probable cause, is- the lesion producing the palsy by extension or development, has produced the mental derangement. I conclude thus from the fact that the palsy appeared about the time or shortly after the first insanity disappeared, and is worse during the present insanity.

Little known facts about countians

My third great grandmother, Eliza Jane Jacobs, daughter of William and Sybil (Little) Jacobs of Virginia, was born NOv. 20, 1810 in Brown Co. (?), she married on Oct. 1, 1829, in Brown Co. (oath given by Levi Jacobs, probably her brother), John T. Reeves, born Aug. 2, 1811, in Brown Co. (?). The parents of John T. Reeves are unknown, but his father was born in VA and his mother in Germany.

About 1851, John and Eliza (Jacobs) Reeves moved to Wabash Co., Indiana and remained there until their deaths. Eliza died July 4, 1888 at age 77y, 7m, 14d, and John died Mar. 23, 1891, at age 80. They are both buried in the Mississinewa Cemetery (Mt. Vernon Section), Wabash Co., Ind. The Mt. Vernon Cemetery was moved into the new Mississinewa Cemetery when a dam was built where the Mt. Vernon Cemetery used to be.

John T. Reeves served in the Mexican and Civil Wars. Children of John T. and Eliza Reeves are: (1) Zoa Camarene, b. about 1830, Brown Co., she married Dec. 13, 1849, Andrew Jackson Malott; (2) Frances, b. about 1832, OH; (3) William R. b. about 1834, OH, he married Feb 29, 1863 in Wabash Co. Ind., Sarah A. Huddleston; (4) Rebecca, b. about 1836, OH; (5) John R. b. about 1843, OH, he married Oct. 29, 1870, Wabash Co. Ind., Mattie A. Huddleston.

Eliza Jane Jacobs had two brothers, William b. Jun. 23, 1799, KY, he married Sep. 27, 1821 in Brown Co., to Zoa Wilks, they had eight children; and Joseph b. Dec. 17, 1796 who died Jul 3, 1866 in Effingham Co. Illinois. Other possible siblings are: Levi Jacobs who married Mary L. Beatty; Malinda Jacobs b. about 1813, OH, she married Henry Kimbel; Ephriam Jacobs b. 1802, KY, married Elizabeth Reeves; and Thornton Jacobs.

I will gladly exchange information with anyone researching these families. Submitted by: Lucille Murphy Wilkinson, 105 San Marcos Drive, Medford, Oregon 97504.

MRS. CHARLES HAWK.

Cora Elma Smith was born near Felicity, Clermont County, Ohio, September 29, 1870. Departed this life March 18, 1910, age 39 years, 5 months and 29 days.

She was of a family of eight children, two brothers, two sisters and three half sisters, her mother, her younger sister, Mrs. Phillip Lippert, of Augusta, Kentucky, and youngest brother, Edwin Smith, preceded her in death, while her father, Peter C. Smith, her brother, William H. Smith, of Batavia and sister, Mrs. William Johnson, of Mt. Olive, with her half sisters, Mrs. William Wedding, of Cincinnati, Laura and Jessie Smith survive her.

She was only five years old at her mother's death, at which time she went to make her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wells. Her uncle, who she knew as a father, preceded her in death, while she and her aunt, who mourns her as a daughter, remained together the remainder of her life.

December 25, 1899, she was married to Charles R. Hawk, to this union were born three children, two sons and one daughter, Charles Oliver, 7 years of age and two small babes three days old are left to know the sorrow and desolation of going through life without a mother's caress, a mother's sympathy, a mother's care.

She united with the Point Isabel Christian Church in 1901, where she remained a faithful member until death. She exemplified in her every day life, that she was a conscienteous follower of her Master and devoted to all religious principles. She loved Truth and all that has a tendency to elevate the moral, social and religious attainments of mankind. She read much and possessed a great fund of Bible knowledge, having read and carefully studied the Bible through seven times during the last eleven years.

She was a loving and faithful wife, as a mother there was no sacrifice too great, no task too hard, no self denial she would not make. As a friend and neighbor she was kind and generous, in sickness and taouble she was always ready to help and offer a word of sympathy and comfort. But she has reached the close of life's long day, and the sunset came peacefully and now she sleeps the sweet sleep of angelic repose, and as our loss is her eternal gain, we should not grieve but buw submissovely and say in thelanguage of the poet

Jesus, while our heart our hearts are breaking,
O'er the the spoils that death has won
Though afflicted, but not forsaken
We'll calmy say, "Thy will be done."

Obituary.

Marion Ray, son of Charles R. and Cora E. Hawk was born March 15, 1910, departed this life August 15, 1910, age 5 months.

Father and one brother survive to mourn their loss, his mother and twin sister preceded him to the Realms of the great Beyond where life shall be one grand eternal day, where suffering shall be no more.

While his life's day was short and full of suffering, we are sad and do mourn because the sweet angel spirit has left us but we bow in submission to the Divine Master's will believing he doeth all things for the best.

Goobye, little Ray, sleep in peace until we shall meet in a brighter clime. FATHER.

CARD OF THANKS.

Again through the TIMES we will try to express our sincere thanks to our kink neighbors and friends who in any way assisted us in the sickness and death of our darling baby boy. Especially to Brother Swope, Miss Edna Hicks and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Broadwell for their service. God bless you, is my prayer.

CHARLES HAWK.

OBITUARY.

Eliza (Jacobs) Day, daughter of William and Zoa Jacobs, was born near Hamersville, Ohio, November 27, 1836, and departed this life at her daughter's, Mrs. Anna Rye, in Georgetown, Ohio, April 12, 1911, at the age of 74 years, 4 months and 15 days. She grew to womanhood at the place of her birth and on August 26, 1855, she was united in marriage to John L. Day. This union continued unbroken in the sacred of wedded life for fifty-six years. Only a little more than three weeks ago, March 21, death separated them only to reunite them in bonds that cannot enter. Into the home formed by this union came seven children, five sons and two daughters. One son, James H., and one daughter, Zoa J., preceded their parents to that bourne whence no traveler returns. The surviving children are Frank M., William E., Oliver E., Anna M. (Rye), and Jesse L. In early life she united with the Church of Christ at Hamersville under the ministry of Rev. William Moore and both she and her husband were baptized by him. In this fellowship she lived a faithful and consistent christian life until her release from entrance upon the perfect life of earth's suffering and her abundant joy and peace. All her life except three years, which were spent near Brazil, Indiana, were passed in Brown county. Forty two years were spent on the farm near New Harmony. During recent years her health has been failing and for the last six months she has been a great sufferer. Three weeks ago she was brought to her daughter's, Mrs. R. L. Rye, in the hope that she might get relief, but it was in vain; death mocks the kindly ministrations of love and tenderness and the experience and skill of medical science. At midnight of April 12, just as the day was departing, her soul was released from its bondage and her body from its pain. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. John G. Quinlan, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rye in Georgetown. The body was borne to the cemetery at New Harmony and there laid to rest by that of her husband, who had so recently preceded her.

John L. Day was born near Hamersville, Ohio, May 5, 1837, and died at his late residence near New Harmony, March 21, 1911, at the age of 73 years, 10 months and 16 days. His boyhood and young manhood were passed on the farm where he was born. He was married to Miss Eliza Jacobs on August 26, 1855. The children born to them are mentioned in the obituary of Mrs. Day, given above. Mr. Day was a member of the Church of Christ, lived a faithful member in that church and died in the triumph of that faith.

He was a man of genial and kindly disposition, sincere and faithful in all of his dealings with his fellowmen. For forty-two years he had made his home on the farm where he answered death's summons. His worth won and retained many friends and his death was sincerely mourned by all who knew him. His wife survived him only three weeks and now they two lie side by side waiting the call of the resurrection morn in the cemetery at New Harmony. One brother alone, Harvey, survives him.

1957, and plans to construct a new parsonage were commenced immediately.

On April 21, 1958, Howard Dunn donated a plot of land to the church to be used for the new parsonage. Alva Moon, Kenny Mount and Mrs. Edgar Dunn made up the Building Committee for this project, while the Finance Committee was composed of Howard Frazee, Floyd Black and Mrs. Betty Schnidel. Edgar Dunn also received this contract on October 20, 1958.

In the meanwhile, the church continued to grow, and in October, 1958, the mortgage for the new building was burned. On February 5, 1967, another milestone was passed as the balance against the church for the new parsonage was paid in full. Once again, the members of this Church of Christ in Mt. Orab, Ohio, place Him first in their lives!

HISTORICAL NOTES OF THE HAMERSVILLE CHURCH OF CHRIST

The church at Unity had its beginning following the religious revival during the latter part of the 18th century and attained growth with the great religious movement of the early part of the 19th century which reached its greatest volume about 1801 and the years thereafter, known as the Restoration Movement.

About 1795 to 1800, settlers in Scott Township erected a log church on Unity Creek, at which Dr. John Dunlavy, an itinerant minister preached, followed by Namon Dawson, Robert Allen, George Vandament, Matthew Gardner, and others from the early settler families.

There is no record of the early membership of the Unity Church which met in the log building, nor is it known whether or not they subscribed to any specific doctrine; and it is altogether probable that the religiously inclined of all the denominations met and worshipped together.

About 1835 a frame church was built at the crossroad on Unity Creek by the Disciples or Campbellites, as they were then sometimes called. This conclusion was no doubt decided upon after discussion of the subject by persons of this belief in homes of the older residents. John Quinlan was the authority for the statement that the first meetings which resulted in the establishment of the church were held in the home of his grandparents, William and Zoa Jacobs.

There was also in the posession of Mrs. Anna Daye, an old family bible, printed in 1827, on the fly leaf of which was written the following record: "We, the followers of Jesus Christ, do agree to insert our names in the Holy Bible: Joseph Gould, William Die, Thomas Cotrel, [illegible] Fite, Amelia Fite, Elizabeth Fite, William Gould, Miriam Gould, Synthia Dutton, Bethiah Gould, Sophronia Worstel, Elizabeth Gould, George Vandament, Ebbie Vandament, Nancy Hawk, Elizabeth Hawk." This is believed to be a record of the first membership of the Unity

The name Jacobs is an Old Testament name popular as a surname in Germany, with variations such as Jacobi, Knopp and Koap. The name was also used in England and other parts of Great Britain.

The Clark/Jacob ancestry probably begins with the father of Ephraim (Everett's great grandfather) who the Census records show was born in Kentucky and his parents born in Virginia. His father was very likely William Jacobs who was one of the original settlers of Clark Township, Brown Co. Ohio, having come there about 1820, to near Hamesville. On the 1830 Census of Brown Co. on the line next to Ephraim is a William Jacobs and his wife, ages between 60 and 70 years who were very likely his parents. They may have come originally from Virginia but lived for a time in Kentucky-Fleming County.

IV-10; EPHRAIM JACOBS was born 4 March 1802 in Kentucky, exact place not known, probably Fleming County. He married Elizabeth Reeves father probable Wm. Reeves b. Prince Wm. Co., VA in Brown Co. Ohio 7 Oct. 1824. In 1836, Ephraim purchased land in Adams Co. Ind. and during 1840 had moved to Blue Creek Twp. in that county where he spent most of the remainder of his life. Elizabeth died on 20 Sept. 1872 and Ephraim died 20 Sept. 1888. Both are buried, along with other family members, in the New Hope Cemetery, east of New Bern, Ind., near the Ohio line. In 1880, Ephraim was living with a son-in-law, Phillip Martz, in Dublin Township in Mercer Co. Ohio. In the same household were Edwin and Melvin Clark, Ephraim's grandsons.

Several Jacobs are on the same Census sheet as Ephraim in 1830 in Brown Co. Ohio, and it is likely that John, Levi and a younger William are his brothers. Sibyl Jacobs, quite likely Ephraim's mother, was living in 1850 in Brown Co. Ohio with John T. Reeves, and shown on the Census as 81 years old. She died 9 Sept. 1853, aged 84 years, 4 Mo. and 4 days and is buried in the Jacobs family plot in the New Bern Cemetery. She evidently was living with Ephraim when she died and John T. Reeves was a near relative, probably a son.

Levi Jacobs married Zoa Wilks 27 Sept. 1821. He died 23 June 1879, aged 79 years, 4 mo. and 13 days; his wife Zoa died 11 March 1875, aged 72 years 11 mo. 7 days. Both are buried in the Unity Cemetery in Scott Twp. in Brown Co. where Levi was postmaster for 22 years. From similar (same) names of children it is almost certain Levi was a brother of Ephraim.

Children of Ephraim and Elizabeth (Reeves) Jacobs.

1. William; b. about 1826, Brown Co. Ohio; m. adams Co., IN ca 1855-58 Elizabeth Shafer (widow); He was a blind broommaker. One child; several step-children.
2. Levi; b. c 1828, Brown Co. Ohio; died unmarried Adams Co. Ind. 23 Apr. 1852.
3. Matilda; b c 1830, Brown Co. Ohio; m. 21 June 1860 Phillip Martz.

with variations such as Jenkin, [illegible]. The name was also used in Ireland and other parts of Great Britain.

The Clark-Leech ancestry probably begins with the father of Ephraim (Leech's great grandfather) who the Census records show was born in [illegible] and his parents born in Virginia. His father was very likely William Leech who was one of the original settlers of Clark Township, Brown Co., Ohio, and came there about 1795, to near [illegible]. In the 1850 Census of Brown Co. are listed in Clark Township a William Leech and his wife, ages between 50 and 70 years who were very likely the parents. They may have come originally from Virginia and lived for a time in Kentucky—Fleming County.

IV-10. EPHRAIM LEECH was born 9 March 1800 in Kentucky, exact place [illegible] known, probably Fleming County. He married Elizabeth [illegible] in Brown Co. 9 Feb. 1826. In 1836, Ephraim purchased land in Adams Co., Ind., and [illegible] he moved to Blue Creek Twp. in that county where he spent most of the remainder of his life. Elizabeth died on 30 Sept. 1872 and Ephraim died 30 Sept. 18[illegible]. Both are buried, along with other family members, in the Mt. Hope Cemetery, east of [illegible], Ind., near the Ohio line. In 1880, Ephraim was living with [illegible] in [illegible] Co., Ohio. In the household were [illegible] Clark, Ephraim's grandson.

Samuel Leech was in the same County about as Ephraim in 1830 in [illegible] Co., Ohio, and it is likely that [illegible] and a younger William are his [illegible]. [illegible], quite likely Ephraim's mother, was living in 1850 in Brown Co. with John T. [illegible], and shown in the Census as 71 years old. She died [illegible] aged 79 years, [illegible] and is buried in the Leech family plot in the Mt. Hope Cemetery. She probably was living with [illegible] as a near relative, probably a son.

[illegible] married [illegible] 28 Sept. 1821. He died 23 June 1876, aged [illegible] years, [illegible] and 23 days. His wife [illegible] died 11 March 1873, aged 73 years, [illegible] 7 mo. She married 13 Nov. 1862, Dow Wilson Clark, farmer and school teacher of near-by Black Creek Twp. Mercer Co. Ohio, Four sons were born to this couple. REEVES

The name Reeves originated in the ancient word "Reve", meaning a bailiff, provost or steward. Probably most of the families bearing variations of this name have a common origin.

After the Normans invaded England in 1066, the name "reve" was changed to "bailiff". In later times the word "sheriff" (shire-reve) came into use designating the principal Governor over the English shire or county.

Robert Reve of Blandford, County Dorset, was the earliest known ancestor of the English family of Reve, Rives, or Ryves. He was born about 1490. After his death in 1551 he was buried in the Church of St. Peter and Paul in Blandford Forum where the coat of arms was found on the north window. One William Rives who settled in Virginia was considered to be the founder of the Rives, Ryves family in the southern states of America. He was the son of Timothy Rives of Oxfordshire, Eng. and came to Surrey County, Va. about 1653.

The first documented representative line of this branch of the Reeves family was George Reeves who was born about 1700 in Virginia. There is no record to be found of his arrival by ship in that generation so it is quite likely that his father was the emigrant.

One family researcher, Mrs. Elizabeth Reeves Bacus, after extensive research, has a theory that he was a John Reeves who arrived in the colonies as an indentured servant in 1685. Her reasons are as follows.

In a book entitled "The Original List of Persons of Quality", written by John Hotton in 1874, John Reeves is listed as a "convicted rebel", owing to his involvement in the Monmouth Rebellion of 1685. He is also listed as being sold to a planter by the name of John Smart in Barbados. In a book entitled, "The Reeves Family" by Reeves, some light is shed on the John Reeves. Although written about the Reeves of North Carolina, George is mentioned as possibly being one of two or three brothers who were sons of John Reeves, who settled in different parts of the colonies.

After the suppression of the Monmouth Rebellion some 300 were hanged and 850 were condemned to servitude in the colonies. "Included in a bunch of convicted Rebells"turned over on 20 September 1685, pursuant to "The Warrant from Ye Lord Chief Justice, to be transported to his Majestie's Plantations in America" was one John Reeves who had been in confinement at Wells in Somerset, just north of Lyme Regis. These were shipped from Weymouth in Dorset by the ship, BETTY, and duly reached Barbados where Reeves was turned over to John Smart as master. It is believed, though without proof, that this John Reeves was the father of George. In the Quit Claim lists of Virginia in 1704 a John Reeves is listed as owning 50 acres of land. In 1704, his indenture would have been over and at that time the law gave each servant 50 acres upon his fulfillment of his indenture. Another thing, George named one of his older sons, John, which was a common practice. In any event this series of events seems logical in the absence of any record of George Reeves arrival in Virginia.

VII-88 GEORGE^{1} REEVES (John ?) was born about 1700 in Virginia and died after 1774 in Prince William County, Virginia. George Reeves married Ann Doggett who was born about 1703 in Lancaster Co. Va. and died after 1751 in Prince William Co. Va. She was the daughter of Benjamin Doggett, II who was born about 1655 in Ipswich, Eng. and who died in 1722 in Lancaster, Va. Grandparents were Benjamin Doggett; b. 1636 in Ipswich, Eng. who died in 1682 in Lancaster Co. Va. His wife was Jane (   ) Garrand. He was a minister and tobacco planter.

Children of George and Ann (Doggett) Reeves:

1. George Reeves; m. Jane______. Children: William, James, Jonathan, Joseph; daughter Jemima Mooney; daughter Susanna. Lived Prince William Co. Va.; died before 2 Aug. 1779.
2. John.
3. Benjamin.
4. Moses.
5. ASA REEVES. See below.
6. Elizabeth Reeves.

VI-44; ASA^{2} REEVES (George^{1}) was born about 1730 in Prince William Co. Va. and died in 1822 in Fleming Co. Ky. He married Sarah Lambert in Va. who died after 1789 in Mason Co. Ky. He was a Revolutionary Patriot.

V-22 WILLIAM^{3} REEVES (Asa^{2}, George^{1}, John?) was born 8 April 1765 in Prince William Co. Va. He was baptized as an infant in Shady Run Church (Church of England) in Prince William Co. Enlisted in Revolutionary Army 1 October 1780 and served as a private in Capt. John Britt's Company; Col. Glenn's Virginia Regiment and was discharged about 1 March 1781. He enlisted sometime in August 1781, served about two weeks in Capt. Valentine Peyton's Company inder Col. Lee, during which time he served under Lt. William Reeves and assisted in repairing the roads from Alexandria to Dunfries. He was then transferred to Capt. John Britt's Co. and was "foraging for the army" until sometime in October 1781. He moved to Fleming county Kentucky in 1790; lived there for twenty-two years; then moved to Brown County, Ohio, in Scott Township. He received a Revolutionary War pension 29 April 1833 while living in Scott Township. He had married a second wife, Eleanor Wood, in 1906. She was apparently not the mother of his children who were born earlier. Name of his first wife is not presently known.

Indiana, where they spent the rest of their lives and reated a family. Elizabeth died 20 Sept. 1872 and is buried in the Jacobs family plot east of New Bern, Ind. near the Ohio line.

he got a bill that said he still had to pay for coming to this country.

When the two older sons had immigrated earlier, they had built a small plank house which contained only one room. The walls were very thick and white washed. There was a big fireplace along the east side of the house and a great big chimney. The door was on the west side. The little plank house was divided into partitions with another partition to sleep in. It was built on the west side of the present M.R.E. cemetery.

BLUE CREEK TOWNSHIP

On March 5, 1838, the Adams County Board of Commissioners created Blue Creek Township from parts of St. Marys and Wabash Townships, which with Root had made the three townships of the county. Pliny Flagg was named inspector of elections, and the first election was to be held at the home of Samuel Flagg on the first Monday of April, 1838, to elect a justice of the peace, constable, inspector of elections, superintendent of roads, two overseers of the poor, and two fence viewers.

Blue Creek township claims the first resident of the county, William Lowe at the east end of Thompson's Prairie, on the Godfrey Trace, or Quaker Trace. The old "squatters" are described at length in the county history section.

Some of the early landowners include Dennison Tinkham, Tunis Young, Michael Eley, T.D. Braddock, Elijah Gilpin, and George Campbell.

The township is near to Willshire, O., which was established in 1822, and was a thriving town in the early days, larger than Decatur until the late 1850's.

A Presbyterian church was built of logs near the present site of Salem about 1850; it had been torn down years before the turn of the century.

Salem is the only platted settlement in Blue Creek Township. It was recorded November 14, 1867 by George W. Syphers; in 1887 it had a population of 61; in 1890, 75; It was originally located at the crossing of the Willshire and Fort Recovery Roads, now called the Salem Road (425 E) and 200 S., in the northwest quarter of Section 17.

Blue Creek Township is comprised of the west four tiers of sections in Township 26 North, Range 15 W, 24 sections of one square mile each. While the township was one of the first to be settled, the first land purchase in the township was that of William Bay in Sec. 32, on June 10, 1834.

The first land entry in each section of Blue Creek Township is: Sec. 3 Dec. 19, 1836 N½ NW¼ John Crawford 74.28 acres; Sec. 4 May 2, 1836 SW¼ Nathan C. Braddock 160 acres; Sec. 5 Sep. 16 1837 SE¼ SE ¼ Albert Jones 40 acres; Sec. 6 Feb. 26, 1838 S½ NW¼ Samuel Haney 80 acres; Sec. 7 Aug. 16, 1837 NE¼ NE¼ William Hannabell 40 acres; Sec. 8 Sep. 16, 1837 E½ NE ¼ Evan Jones 80 acres; Sec. 9 May 21, 1836 E½ NW ½ Nathan C. The following men have served as trustee of Blue Creek Township; all except three of them are believed to have been Democrats or Whigs. The earliest elections, before the "new" constitution of 1851, were conducted by the township, and no record of them has been found.

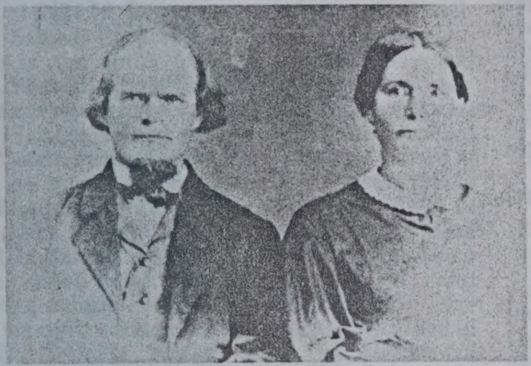
WILLIAM SIPE



William and Elizabeth (Foreman) Sipe.

William Sipe was one of the early pioneers of [illegible] Creek Twp. He married Elizabeth Foreman [illegible] still living in Ohio. Elizabeth was the daughter of Henry H. and Mary Magdelena (Schatterly) Foreman and she was born on Aug. 15, 1819 in Fayette County, Pa. Her parents moved to Butler County, Ohio when she was two years old and it was here that she met and married William.

In 1850 William and Elizabeth were living on a rented farm in Jefferson Township, Henry County, Ind. Four years later they moved to Blue Creek township where on Nov. 3, 1853, William had purchased 80 acres for $400 from Ephraium Jacobs. The land was located in section 22. At this time Adams County was barely cleared of timber. It seemed to be principally covered with woods, swamps, and mosquitoes. Ague, a malaria type of fever, was a common affliction among the pioneer families. Dedication, hard work, and long hours turned their acreage into a pioneer farm to be proud of. William became known as a successful farmer, a good neighbor, and a kind and considerate person and Elizabeth was a woman of extraordinary frugality. These traits they cultivated in their children also.

Elizabeth sold butter and eggs and saved the greater part of their income. When William died they owned several good farms in addition to which they had a grain bag filled with currency and silver which she had saved from the sale of her produce. Her son, Andrew, said that it was so heavy he had difficulty carrying it from the attic. Elizabeth died Dec. 18, 1897 and William had [illegible]eded her in death on Nov. 24, 1892. They are [illegible]ed in the Mt. Hope Cemetery.

William and Elizabeth had five sons. John H. Sipe (1848-1931) married Volara Frank. Joseph L. (1849-1931) married Arrabelle Garrison (1856-1936) on Feb. 27, 1873. Andrew J. (1851-1911) married Catherine Fallen (1848-1911) on Jan. 15, 1874. They are buried in the Mount Hope Cemetery. Riley Sipe died when he was a young man. He was kicked by a horse he was driving as they descended a steep hill. William R. Sipe (1857-1882) married Emma Myers. By Earl Sipe

EARL AND ALMA SIPE

Earl and Alma Sipe, 1977

Earl E. Sipe was born on Aug. 25, 1906 in Blue Creek Township to Harvey L. (Dec. 28, 1885 to Aug. 16, 1943) and Mary M. Kelley (July 23, 1885) Sipe. Harvey was also a native of Blue Creek Township. His father, Andrew J. Sipe (1851-1911), was three years old when he migrated to the area with his parents, William and Elizabeth (Foreman) Sipe from Henry County, Ind. Andrew was married to Catherine Fallen (1848-1911) and they had two children: William and Harvey. The Sipe family were pioneers and hard working farmers owning land in sections 27, 33 and 34 of Blue Creek Township.

Earl's mother, Mary, is 93 years old. She is the daughter of Samuel F. and Elizabeth Minerva (Deo) Kelley. Samuel and Minerva were proprietors of the Rice Hotel in Decatur around 1900 and it was the job of Mary and her brother to carry the suitcases and wait on tables. The hotel did a thriving business with the many salesmen who would come to town to peddle their wares among the local merchants. Samuel died in 1917 and Minerva died 1928. They are buried in the Mount Hope Cemetery in Blue Creek Twp.

Mary's grandfather was Patrick Kelley, a native of Dublin, Ireland. Patrick first settled in Pennsylvania where he married a Miss Axe. After their marriage they moved to the Zanesville, Ohio area and from there migrated to section 21 in Wabash Township. Their children were James, George, John W., Samuel F., and B.C. Kelley.

Harvey and Mary (Kelley) Sipe reared three children besides Earl. They are Lester (1911-1974) who lived in Blue Creek Township and married Carrie Smalley; Marjorie (Mrs. Robert Gable) who lives in Ft. Wayne; and Robert L. who married Alyce Gilpin and lives in Willshire, Ohio. One of the memories Earl will always have with him happened when he was 13 years old. It was on March 28, 1920 when a tornado swept through their area and completely devastated their farm. The family was huddled in the living room at the time. Not only did the tornado break the windows, it also removed the entire second story and the north wall of the first story. The only physical injuries suffered was by his mother who received a cut on her hand from flying glass. The family's pride and joy, a 1919 Studebaker, was found on top of the flattened windmill and had been converted from a touring car to a convertible minus a windshield. After removing the car from its metal hanger, the family drove the car for some time before taking it to Ft. Wayne to have the top replaced.

On April 17, 1927 Earl married Alma L. Raudenbush. She was born on July 4, 1905 to William and Della (Reynolds) Raudenbush. Her paternal grandparents, Isaac and Anna M. (Shaffer) Ra denbush settled in section 13 of Washingt
Township in 1866. Her maternal grandpare were Elisha and Sarah (Roe) Reynolds. Willi and Della owned 106 acres in section 20 of Bl
Creek Township. Besides Alma, they had a s
Rolla. In Snow's History of Adams County, t name is incorrectly spelled Randenbush.

Earl has been a farmer all his life. After he a Alma were married they rented a farm until 19
when they purchased a farm formerly owned
Martha E. Grim in section 27 of Blue Cre
Township near the farm where Earl was rear
Later they purchased 75 more acres adjoini

Earl and Alma have two children: Doyt L. a

In Aug. 1974 Earl and Alma retired and s

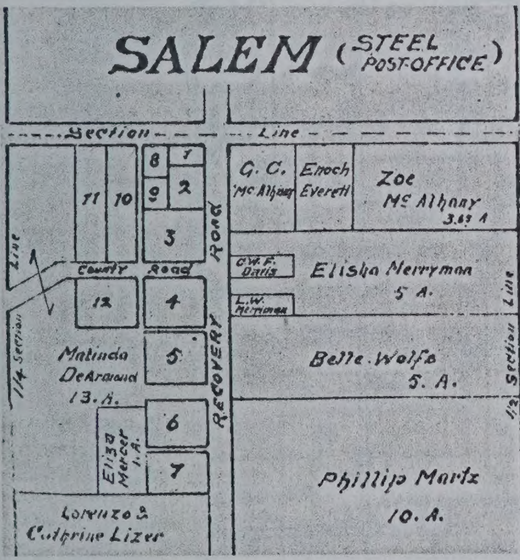
AGRICULTURE IN 1853

One of the most interesting early records of Blue Creek Township is the "Statement of Agricultural Products, in Bluecreek Township, Adams County, on the 1st of January, 1853." This lists the horses, cattle, sheep, swine, carriages, watches, piano fortes, and their value, value of farm[illegible] utensils, household furniture, bushels of corn, [illegible]eat, rye, oats, potatoes, fruit, pork, bacon, wool, hay, and other personal property.

The first name ón the list, which is not alphabetical, is that of George Frank, who had two horses valued at $125; 16 cattle at $82; 14 sheep at $14; 23 Swine at $50; 1 carriage at $25; 1 watch valued at $1; $15 worth of farming utensils (!), $40 in household furniture, 29 bushels of wheat valued at $18.40; 40 bushels of oats at $10, eight bushels of potatoes at $2; 2 barrels of pork at $25; a ton of hay at $3.50; and $12 more in personal property not previously listed — for a total of $424.90. Doesn't sound like much — well, only Samuel Sackett and William Kimsey had more in the entire township — and they had $438.50 each. About ten farmers had four horses, but none reported more than that; Andrew Scoles had 17 cattle, valued at $154 and 27 sheep valued at $1 each; James Danner had 40 swine valued at $40; no one had more than 2 carriages. David Ford had three watches valued at $11. William C. Ghormley had the finest carriages — two valued at $150. Samuel Morningstar had the best piano forte, valued at $3. Samuel Sackett had the best farming utensils — $36.25 worth. Ghormley also had the most corn stored — 75 bushels, valued at $19.30. William Kimsey had 160 bushels of wheat, valued at $96. F.D.B. Braddock had 100 bushels of oats valued at $25. Henry Clauson had 25 bushels of potatoes valued at $6.25. Most of the homes had several hundred pounds of bacon — Clauson has 600 valued at $36, or 6¢ a pound. Elijah Gilpin had 10 tons of hay valued at $30.

VILLAGE OF SALEM



Salem is presently located on Salem road and 200S. Many years ago it was an Indian Trading Post and at that time it was located at the intersection of Godfrey Trace, going from Ft. Recovery, Ohio to Wayne Trace and Willshire-Vera Cruz Trail going from the Wabash River to the St. [illegible]ys River.

[illegible]ge W. Syphers, who platted Salem November 14, 1867 in Sec. 17, soon learned that there were too many other towns named Salem to secure a post office by that name for Blue Creek Township. His first post office was called Galen, and he was named postmaster, serving from July 24, 1871 to April 5, 1873, when it was discontinued. B. Baughman was named postmaster for the Steele Post Office, named for "Doc" Steele, prominent Blue Creek farmer, at Salem, February 3, 1888; William Davis, September 4, 1889; John R. Porter, September 5, 1893; William Baughman, November 19, 1895; John R. Porter, August 20, 1896; Amos Danner, December 31, 1897; Arkison B. Baughman, January 20, 1898; William E. Redding, June 20, 1898. Redding was the last postmaster at Steele — Free Rural Delivery led to consolidation of many small rural post offices, and on December 31, 1904, Steele was discontinued, and the mail forwarded to Monroe. Finley Bryan had carried the mail from the Willshire, O., post office to the Steele Post Office; later it was dropped at Pleasant Mills by the Cloverleaf RR and carried to Steele by buckboard for 50¢ round trip.

Area fox hunters — 1967 — who met at Salem Store

The following appeared in Polk's 1890 Gazateer of Indiana:

STEELE

A recently established postoffice in Blue Creek township, Adams county, 10 miles southeast of Decatur, the county seat and banking town, and 5 southwest of Willshire, O., its shipping depot, on T. St. L.andK.C. R.R. Population, 75. Mail, tri-weekly. A.B. Baughman, postmaster. Businessmen: A.B. Baughman, General Store; C.W.F. Davis, blacksmith; Langenberger and Co., saw mill; E. Lynch, undertaker; E.R. Merriman, saw mill.

At the turn of the century the businesses included two blacksmith shops owned by Ed Lynch and Chester Shinn. Fenton Davis also was a blacksmith. Two general stores at one time flourished. These were owned at different times by Art Baughman, Henry Clawson, George McAlhaney, Art Krugh, Frank Lynch and Joe Burnette, Roy and Clint Lautzenheiser, Lawrence Carver who was there forty five years and the final owners Clair and Marjorie Carver who owned it for thirty one years. The business was sold out completely on July 21, 1977. The building is presently standing vacant after being in use for over 100 years. The other store was owned by C.W.T. Davis and Lem Merriman. Many rural people depended on their groceries as well as kerosene, dry goods and various other supplies from huckster wagons from the stores. At first horse-drawn wagons were used and then in the early twenties they were replaced by motorized vehicles. Earlier in trading, the barter system was used.

A cabinet shop owned by Elisha R. Merriman was also one of the earlier businesses. He made coffins and was the local undertaker. A barber shop and a cream station also located in the cabinet shop. Frank Shaner was the cream man and there were different barbers. Eli Bixler was one.

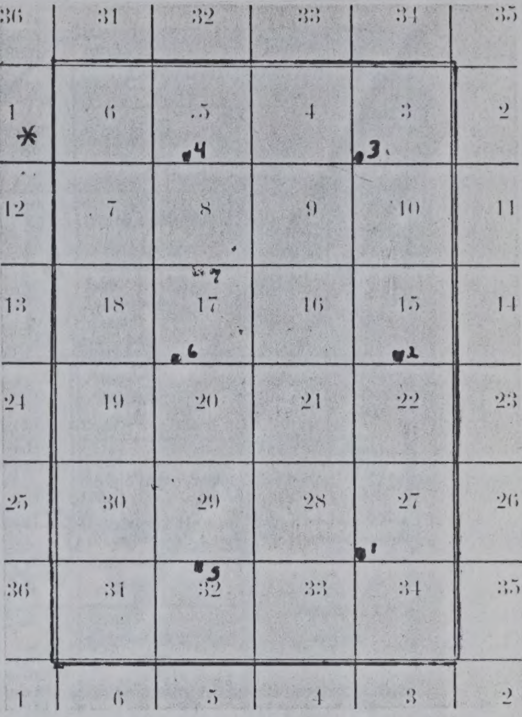
Another barber shop was operated by Warren Hamrick, Curtis Baker and Clarence Longenberger. The latter presently (1979) is living in Salem and is 88 years of age. Possibly there were other barbers.

A.B. Riley had a carpenter crew that built and raised barns and moved buildings. Grover, John and Pete Everett had threshing machinery.

Two new houses have been built in Salem within the last two years, and while no stores now exist, the crossroads is still a local social center.

FORMER SCHOOLS

The earliest school buildings in Blue Creek Township were the "Burge" in Section 32, the "Bryan" in Section 21, also known as the Election and the "Boyers" in Section 5. These were made of logs, and were built in the 1840's.



Blue Creek Township schools, c. 1892. Dis. 1, "Jacobs"; Dis. 2, "Woods"; Dis. 3 "Egypt"; Dis. 4, "North Brick"; Dis. 5 "Kimsey"; Dis. 6, "Prairie"; Dis. 7. "Salem".

On September 2, 1859, a deed from George and Rebecca Kitner transferred ½ acre to the township in section 5 for $1.00. In 1860 the North Brick school was erected on this site at the corner of Salem road (Godfrey Trace) and road #100 south. This building served its purpose until 1922 when one acre of land was purchased from Calvin Hamrick for $200.00 to erect a more modern building. This school was built at the corner of 400 East and 100 South. The cost of the school was $12,750.00, plus a heating system from A.H. Ashbaucher for $725.00, and toilets from Kiger and Co. for $525.00. R.C. Speigher dug the well for $1.45 per foot. This school was closed in 1944, and the building was sold on December 30, 1949, for $1,150.00. A modern home stands on this location and is owned by Larry D. Myers and wife, Darlene. Larry is a former trustee of the township.

Salem Schoolhouse, Dist. #7, c. 1926.

The old school building was sold on March 1, 1924 to George Schrenk for $71.00, and the coal shed and other buildings to Wm. Burkhart for $26.75 and the furnace to Ed Burkhart for $1.05. Hisey and Bebout were the contractors for the new building. Harvey L. Sipe was the trustee.

On April 5, 1864, ½ acre of land was purchased from Ephriam and Elizabeth Jacobs for $6.00 to build another school, to be called the Jacobs and was in District #1, or Section 27, on the corner of 500 South and 600 East. This building served its purpose until April 2, 1914, when another half acre was purchased from Joseph and Martha Grim for $75.00 and a new building was erected. Soon after the new school was in use, Lloyd Campbell, the teacher, decided to change its

Jacobs' among early settlers

Submitted by the Brown Co. Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 83, Georgetown, Ohio

My great grandfather, Ephraim - Jacobs, was born in 1802 in Kentucky. It is believed that Ephraim's parents were William and Sybil (?) Jacobs of Virginia who, in 1830, were living adjacent to Ephraim in Brown County, O. Other Jacobs living in Brown County who may have been brothers to Ephraim were: Levi, Thornton and William. Levi Jacobs was a postmaster and married M. L. Beatty. William Jacobs b. 23 June 1799, m. 27 September 1821 Zoa Wilks and had children: John W., Matilda, and Zoa. Sybil (?) Jacobs died in Adams County, Indiana in 1853. In the 1850 census she is residing in the home of John T. Reeves and his wife, Elizabeth. Could Elizabeth have been a Jacobs and are there any local descendants of John T. and Elizabeth Reeves?

Ephraim Jacobs was married on the 7th October 1824 in Brown County, O. to Elizabeth Reeves, and in 1839 moved to Adams County, Indiana where Ephraim lived the remainder of his life. Children of Ephraim and Elizabeth (Reeves) Jacobs were: I. William b. 1826 Brown Co., O., m. Elizabeth Shafer, a widow. II. Levi b. 1828-d. 1852 unm. III. Matilda b. 1830 m. 1860 Phillip Martz. IV. Rachel b. 1834 m. Jacob Schull. V. Zoa b. 1836 m. John H. Clawson. VI. John W. b. 1839 Adams Co., Ind., m. Marinda (?) VII. Letha L. b. 1841/2 m. 1852 Dow Wilson Clark. These are my grandparents.

Elizabeth Reeves may have been the daughter of William Reeves, Revolutionary soldier, born in Prince William Co., Va., lived in Kentucky for 22 years and came to Scott or Washington Township, Brown County, Ohio. I would like to establish proof of parentage for Ephraim Jacobs and for Elizabeth Reeves. I will gladly exchange information with anyone researching these families. Submitted by Everette R. Clark, 309 West Keetoowah, Green Country, Tahlequah, Oklahoma 74464.

Betty Bacus, 396 East Madison, Elmhurst, Illinois visited our county courthouse this month to do some research and spoke briefly with me while there. Her ancestor is Eli Reeves, whom, I believe she said, married Nancy Ranking, daughter of Rev. Daniel Rankin and his wife, Sarah Redmon. Eli Reeves had a son, John, and the family migrated to Rush and Hancock counties, Ind., and then to Mercer County, Missouri. Betty is fortunate in that she resides near enough to the Newberry Library in Chicago to avail herself of the marvelous genealogy materials which they hold. Perhaps she could be of assistance to those of you who have Illinois ancestral problems. Submitted by Pat Donaldson, Georgetown, Ohio.

For many years after this county was organized, it was necessary to call at the post office for one's mail. Letters not called for in a reasonable time were advertised in the local newspapers, which letters, if not taken out within 3 months were sent to the dead letter office of the General Post Office, These samples may be helpful to researchers:

The following letter is another example of the problems which plagued postmasters in the early (and later) days of the mail service. From the Post Office Department Archives of 1909:

Plummer, Minn., March 11, 1909

Superintendent, RMS
St. Paul, Minn.

Sir: I beg to report that on Tuesday evening, the 9th inst., there was received at this office from Star Route No. 41299, a package containing two pints of butter and a chunk of cheese of advanced age. This package was done up in a piece of common wrapping paper, being rather scantily clad, considering the age of the cheese, and the contents were scattered on the sorting table when the clerk emptied the sack. It would damage all other mail enclosed with it, and I would be pleased to have you advise what disposition I should make of it. It is clearly impossible to forward

Little known facts about countians

My third great grandmother, Eliza Jane Jacobs, daughter of William and Sybil (Little) Jacobs of Virginia, was born NOv. 20, 1810 in Brown Co. (?), she married on Oct. 1, 1829, in Brown Co. (oath given by Levi Jacobs, probably her brother), John T. Reeves, born Aug. 2, 1811, in Brown Co. (?). The parents of John T. Reeves are unknown, but his father was born in VA and his mother in Germany.

About 1851, John and Eliza (Jacobs) Reeves moved to Wabash Co., Indiana and remained there until their deaths. Eliza died July 4, 1888 at age 77y, 7m, 14d, and John died Mar. 23, 1891, at age 80. They are both buried in the Mississinewa Cemetery (Mt. Vernon Section), Wabash Co., Ind. The Mt. Vernon Cemetery was moved into the new Mississinewa Cemetery when a dam was built where the Mt. Vernon Cemetery used to be.

John T. Reeves served in the Mexican and Civil Wars. Children of John T. and Eliza Reeves are: (1) Zoa Camarene, b. about 1830, Brown Co., she married Dec. 13, 1849, Andrew Jackson Malott; (2) Frances, b. about 1832, OH; (3) William R. b. about 1834, OH, he married Feb 29, 1863 in Wabash Co. Ind., Sarah A. Huddleston; (4) Rebecca, b. about 1836, OH; (5) John R. b. about 1843, OH, he married Oct. 29, 1870, Wabash Co. Ind., Mattie A. Huddleston.

Eliza Jane Jacobs had two brothers, William b. Jun. 23, 1799, KY, he married Sep. 27, 1821 in Brown Co., to Zoa Wilks, they had eight children; and Joseph b. Dec. 17, 1796 who died Jul 3, 1866 in Effingham Co. Illinois. Other possible siblings are: Levi Jacobs who married Mary L. Beatty; Malinda Jacobs b. about 1813, OH, she married Henry Kimbel; Ephriam Jacobs b. 1802, KY, married Elizabeth Reeves; and Thornton Jacobs.

I will gladly exchange information with anyone researching these families. Submitted by: Lucille Murphy Wilkinson, 105 San Marcos Drive, Medford, Oregon 97504.

Christopher Pitzer References

Christopher Pitzer is undoubtedly the son of Joseph Pitzer (C-3) and Eleanor Slack. He is mentioned in the memoirs of Lewis Jones (a grandson of Joseph and Eleanor). He was said to be a cousin of Samuel Pitzer who was the son of Solomon, a brother of Joseph. He does not fit into any other Pitzer family in the area where he lived. He is, so far, the only grandson of Christian Pitzer (also known as Christopher Pitzer) who bore the name of the grandfather. No records have yet been found that give competent proof. We are still looking for Bible records, estate settlements, land records, etc.

Christopher was probably born in Ohio. There is a mention of Joseph in 1802 court records in Clermont Co., Ohio. The 1807 Indiana Territorial Census shows no name resembling Pitzer, except perhaps in Knox County, John Risley, John Setzer, Jeremiah Risley, Joseph Ridley. In the 1880 census Christopher's son John said his father was born in Indiana, daughter Lucinda said father born Ohio and daughter Sarah Eleanor said Indiana. John was 7 years old when his father died and the daughters were younger.

The Pitzers apparently lived in what is now Washington Township, Greene Co., IN until 1826-27. They would have lived in Knox, Sullivan, Daviess and Greene Counties and been in the same location for several years. Christopher Pitzer and Matilda Harrison were married in Greene County, Indiana, in 1825. About 1826-27 they moved to Warren County, Indiana. They are mentioned in the history books as having been settlers and voters in Warren County.

In the 1830 census we find Christopher in Clinton County, Indiana, along with his brother Jacob (C-3-2). At least 3 children of Christopher & Matilda were born in Indiana, Mary Jane born 1826, John born 1830, and Christina Lucinda born 1832. The 1830 census indicates an extra male age 20-30 living with the Christopher Pitzer family and also lists a male child age 5-10.

Christopher bought land in Clinton County in March 1833; sold it in October 1833 and bought land in what is now Grant Co., Wisconsin in Dec. 1833.

Two more children were born in Wisconsin, Sarah Eleanor in 1834 and Almeda about 1836. (Almeda was probably named for Christopher's brother Jacob's wife.)

Christopher Pitzer died in 1837 at age 31. He is buried in Lumpkin Cemetery, near Bloomington, Grant Co., Wisconsin. His wife married again to William Christopher Peck and they had 3 children: William Henry Peck, Liza E. Peck, and Caroline Matilda Peck who married (1st) Daniel Mortons and (2) Robert Romans.

WILL OF JOHN PITZER, BROWN COUNTY, OHIO

In the name of God, Amen.

I, John Pitzer, of the County of Brown and State of Ohio, being weak in body, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of sound mind, blessed be Almighty God for the same, do make and publish this my last will and testament, in manner and form following, Vis, First I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Katherine Pitzer, during the time she shall remain a widow from my decease, all of my home farm where I now reside consisting of about ninety acres of land on the south side of white oak creek, and thirty five acres of land on the north side of said creek, opposit to and adjoining the before mentioned farm of ninety acres; which lands and tenements I give and devise to my said beloved wife Katherine Pitzer, with this (proviso) that if she shall at any time during her natural life be married to another man then and in that case I will and order that she shall have no part nor parcel of my said estate from the time of her said marriage, forward forever. And I further will, order and devise, unto my two sons John B. Pitzer and William J. Pitzer the above devised land and tenements from and after the decease of my said wife, or her marriage as aforesaid, to be and forever remain the property and estate of my said two sons John B. Pitzer and William J. Pitzer, their heirs and assigns forever. I do also give and devise unto my son Joseph Pitzer, fifty acres of land out of my tract of eighty five acres on the north side of the creek as aforesaid provided, the same is to be taken off the north end of said tract in such manner as not to interfere with nor touch the bottom land of said tract, the whole of said land being part of an entry in the name of Lewis Booker.

I also give and devise unto my son Henry Pitzer my farm consisting of sixty three acres part of the same entry adjoining lands of George Bingaman and Alexander Hanna and others, to hold to him Henry Pitzer, his heirs and assigns forever.

And further I will and order that the land above devised to my said sons John B. Pitzer and William J. Pitzer must be equally divided between them. I do also will and order that first of all my just debts shall be paid out of my personal property, and that the remains of my personal property (over and above my wife's lawful dower) shall be valued by disinterested persons and divided equally between my five daughters, Rebecca Glasscock, a married woman, Matilda Pitzer, Nancy Pitzer, Delila Pitzer and Martha Ann Pitzer, provided that my daughter Rebecca Glasscock shall not receive any part nor thing of my said estate but at the option and disposal of the persons whom I have this day chosen to be executors of my last will and testament and said executors are not to give her anything as aforesaid except it be clearly represented to them that she is personally in actual need of such part as they shall at any time give her until her proportionable part be given to her in the above mentioned manner, provided also that a certain bay mare and saddle which I have given to my son Henry Pitzer are not to be included in the above named appraisement for the dividend of my daughters as aforesaid. And further and lastly I do will and chose this day, Hezekiah Lindsey and my son Joseph Pitzer to be exeuctors of this my last will and testament to see that the same shall be faithfully fulfilled and executed according to the true intent and meaning thereof and to do and perform all other matters and things necessary or by law required for the execution of the full intent and meaning of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me made.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eleventh day of February 1834.

[The following hymn was a favorite one of Mary A. Reynolds, and she requested that it be sung at her funeral.]

While sorrows encompass me round,
And endless distresses I see,
In anguish I cry, can a mortal be found
Who's surrounded with troubles like me.

The hours of peace I enjoy,
Are blended with sorrow and pain, [ploy.
The moments of praise to my God I em-
Leave me hours and days to complain.

O when shall my sorrows subside?
O when shall my sufferings cease? [ed?
O when to the bosom of Christ be convey-
To the mansions of glory and peace?

My spirit to glory convey'd,
My body laid low in the ground,
I wish not a tear at my grave to be shed,
But let all join in praising around.

No sorrows be vented that day,
When Jesus hath called me home; [say,
But singing and shouting let each brother
He is gone from the evil to come.

If souls disembodi'd can know
The spirits of brethren beneath;
I hope I shall join you as shouting you go,
After laying my corpse in the earth.

Immers'd in the ocean of love,
I then like an angel shall sing,
Till Christ shall descend with a shout
from above,
And make all creation to ring—

Our slumbering bodies obey,
And quick as a thought shall arise;
Renew'd in a moment, fly shouting away,
To the mansions of love in the skies.

C-10-2 MARY ANN PITZER REYNOLDS - REFERENCES

Quotation from Roberta Anderson:

"Aaron Reynolds...oldest daughter Rebecca became very interested in Benjamin Newman, and to prevent a marriage Aaron moved his family to Pike County, Illinois crossing the Illinois River at Griggsville Landing 1 April 1847. The journey took 7 days. (Benjamin soon followed and they were married in October.)

"Aaron 'purchased timber and prairie land and became a pioneer farmer, doing his plowing with oxen, grubbing up the stumps, clearing the fields and ultimately placing under a high state of cultivation the farm of one hundred and sixty-seven acres.' (Massie) His home made of logs was 2-1/4 miles north of Griggsville and was valued at $200 in the 1850 census.

"Aaron found time to be a school board member and to be a member of the Christian Church.

"Mary Ann at age 42 began a battle with rheumatism that crippled her till she spent 24 years in a wheel chair. She learned to read from her grandchildren then at 65 decided to learn to write. She wrote down much family history. A quote from a paper written 30 October 1876 reflects a lot on her character: (spelling, punctuation and capitalization are as she wrote it): 'my hand trimbles so bad As I am not able to do any work that you might have to Look at when I am Dead and tell your children Mother Learned her self to write when she was 65 years old I write this sose you can have somthing to Look at when I am no more I will Tell you who our Ancesters was and where they came from my grandfather Thomas Forsythe came from Ireland to Pennsylvania there he Married a duch Lady miss Nancy Parker there they raised alarge famly of children my Father John Forsythe came to Ohio when ayoung man he Married miss Rebecca Pitsor they rised a famly of six children I am the second child my grandparents Pitsors came from Germany to Ohio when the country was new Deers and Turkys wolvs plenty bears allso my Father in Law Daniel Reynolds seanior was born inthe state of Rhoad Island came to New york state there he Married Miss Lucretia warden when they had six children they moved to the state of Ohio they raised alarge famly thirteen Children Aaron their youngs son was my husband we came to Pike county Illinois in the spring of 1847 in the spring of 52 I was attacked with Rheumatism very helpless till after harvest then was better till spring 53 taken worse kept geting better and worse till 55 in july I got so I couldant get out of my chair without help then could not walk hardly any in the spring 62 I got past standing on my Feet have not stood on my feet over 14 years have not fed myself for 8 years have not heard asermon for 14 years 4 days but thank God I read some good ones'

"On her tombstone is the quote 'While sorrow encompass me round And endless distress I see'."

JOHN BLAIR OF WASHINGTON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

By Rev.Alexander Doak Tadlock, DD

"For some years I have been interested in the BLAIRS, and many letters passed between Dr.Moore and myself. I gave her a full account of the Jonesboro, Tennessee BLAIRS who came from Pennsylvania. My grandmother on my mother's side was the daughter of Lt.JOHN BLAIR, who came from Pennsylvania; and my grandmother on my father's side was the daughter of JOHN BLAIR who came from Guilford County, N.C. to Tennessee. I am not so well up with my father's side of the house as I am with my mother's side - which I have well nigh full. I grew up amongst my mother's uncles and aunts - knew them all; and while you would not want to fill the magazine with whole families, yet doubtless you would wish to present an outline of the families. So I am sending you an outline of the two BLAIRS who came to Tennessee from Pennsylvania. You can depend upon the accuracy of this outline. The wife of Congressman JOHN BLAIR, who was a son of Lt.JOHN BLAIR, personally knew all of these families, and kept a careful record of all deaths, marriages, etc. Here is the record of the two JOHN BLAIRS, father and son, who came to Washington County, Tennessee shortly after they were discharged from the service in the War of the Revolution. I will call the father Pioneer JOHN BLAIR.

Pioneer JOHN BLAIR married Martha Laird in Ireland (perhaps County Down). Part of their children were born there and part in Pennsylvania. They emigrated from Ireland about 1770 to York County, Pennsylvania, to a point near East Berlin, which is now in Adams County. He died in Washington County, East Tennessee, in 1798; his wife, Martha, died in 1803. They are buried at Washington College. These are their descendants:

1. Lt.JOHN BLAIR, born about 1754, died Dec.18, 1818, married August 30, 1785, Susannah KELSEY.
2. ANN BLAIR, born 1758, died August 19, 1829, married______ Alexander McLIN(great grandfather of this contributor).
3. Robert BLAIR, born_17_, died Washington County, Tennessee, 1802, married Jane STEEL.
Eva's ancestor ⇒ 4. Brice BLAIR, born______, married Mary ~~McCannaha~~ McCleary, went to Ohio 1813. (Note: He must not be confused with Brice Blair who died in Penna.)
5. Richard BLAIR, married Mary McCannaha (McConaughy) in Tennessee, went to Ohio in 1813.
mildred's ancestor → 6. William BLAIR, born February 1, 1762, married Margaret WALLACE in Tennessee, died July 20, 1850. He went to Adams County, Ohio in 1813.(Judge Blair of Portsmouth, Ohio is a descendant).
7. Joseph BLAIR, born May 12, 1770, died January 27, 1840, married Jane McCANNAHA, the sister of the above-name Mary McCannaha, and went to Ohio in 1813. (McConaughy)
8. Martha BLAIR, born_____, died March 9, 1812, married Ebenezer John CUNNINGHAM.

The family of Lt.JOHN BLAIR, son of Pioneer JOHN BLAIR, who married Martha Laird in Ireland, and Susannah Kelsey, his wife, of Tenn.

Lt. JOHN BLAIR served as a Revolution War Soldier in the capacity of 1st Lieut.E.S.S.A.F. 115 Pa.Inf. Wounded in the Battle of Germantown. In his application for a pension he stated that he served in the 7th Pa.line; that he also served in the N.J.line; that he was Col. under Brig.Gen John Sevier in fighting the Indians in Tennessee and Georgia; that he was a member of the N.C. Legislature 1786 and 7; and also a member of the 1st Legislature of Tennessee.

Their issue:

1. NANCY KELSEY BLAIR, born 1787, married James Crawford, and went to Illinois.
2. MARTHA BLAIR, born February 20, 10 A.M., 1788, died ___1864 aged 79, married October 3, 1820, William Gilliland.
3. JOHN BLAIR(15 years in Congress), born September 13, 1790, died _____.
4. ANN BLAIR, born May 22, 1793, died April 6, 1861, married June 20, 1816, Robert Lynn McLin, son of Alexander McLin(grandfather of contributor).
5. WILLIAM KELSEY BLAIR, born December ___1794, died____188_, married 1st Mary E. Yearsley; 2nd, Jane Cunningham McLin, widow of Rev.James McLin.
6. MARGARET BLAIR, born ____1794, never married, died in Illinois.
7. ROBERT LAIRD BLAIR, born_____1802, died____1885, married November 1, 1838, Martha Roe Cunningham.
8. ELIZABETH BLAIR, born____1799, died____, married December 2, 1828, William Mitchell, M.D.

Thus I have herein accounted for all the immediate descendants of the two BLAIRS, father and son, who came from Pennsylvania to North Carolina (afterwards it was Tennessee). I am wondering if it is proper to burden the Magazine with these facts. If these statements shall find a place in the BLAIR MAGAZINE, you may depend upon its correctness. There is but one question connected with the history of "Pioneer JOHN BLAIR" that remains unsettled, and that is not material; Dr.Moore wrote me that father and son were both Lieutenants in the Revolutionary War. Later she wrote that JOHN BLAIR, the father of Lieut. JOHN BLAIR, was only a private in the army. Two old and reputable citizens of Washington College testify that they distinctly remember when the marker at the grave of this man bore the inscription "Lt."; the inscription having leached away many years ago under the influence of a fire that swept over the grounds. But good men may sometimes be mistaken. I have been informed that there was but one Lt. among the BLAIRS of the Revolutionary War from Pennsylvania. If that be true, then these men were evidently laboring under an erroneous impression.

We are delighted with the progress being made with the BLAIR MAGAZINE, and especially with the growing interest upon the part of the BLAIRS and related families. Success to the undertaking."

See Reverse

John Blair, my Revolutionary War ancestor, was born in Ireland ca.1737, died 13 July 1799 in Washington Co.,Tennessee. He married Martha Laird of York Co.,Pennsylvania (we have no Bible or court records to prove this). Martha died in Washington Co.,Tenn. in April 1803. John Blair was a private in the Cumberland County (Penn.)Militia. Capt.Alex Peebles Co., 1st Battalion, James Dunlap, Col., Ref.Pa.Archives Vol.6,p.59. Series 5

The family of this John Blair was published in the Nov.1926 issue of the original Blair Magazine. There was an error in showing who Brice Blair married. The article showed that he married MARY McCANNAHA and it should be MARY McCLEARY. Richard Blair married Mary McCannaha. Joseph married Jane McConnaha. It is now spelled McConnaughy.

See Reverse

Brice Blair, s/o John Blair, Rev.War soldier, is my ancestor. He was born either in ~~1772 or 1777. I have seen both dates.~~ He married Mary McCleary prior to 1799. At one time Brice was a Sheriff in Marysville, Tenn.,Blount Co. In 1813 he with his brothers William, Richard and Joseph came to Ohio. They stopped first near Cincinnati and eventually moved to Brown County.

Brice Blair owned land where Georgetown, Ohio now stands. His son John purchased the land from his brothers and sisters in 1828 and lived on the land until his death in 1879. Brice Blair's will was probated in April 1820, so we assume he died shortly before that date. No markers for Brice and Mary. See reverse

Brice Blair and Mary McCleary had the following children:

JOHN BLAIR, b.1799, d.28 Feb.1879, bd.in the old cemetery at the Georgetown, Ohio Fairgrounds. Married three times. Six daughters.

JAMES McCLEARY BLAIR, b.1811, d.26 Jan.1841, age 30 yrs., md. Phoebe Chichester of New York on 18 Dec.1834. No issue. Both buried in the old cemetery at Georgetown, Ohio Fairgrounds.

POLLY BLAIR BEARD (~~Mary~~?), md.John R.Beard, died ~~prior to June 1819,~~ 20 May 1818 when Brice Blair's will was written. No issue. ~~Her name was probably Mary. Do not know where she is buried~~ d.20 May1818, buried in the Tranquility Cem in Adams. It was a shock to find this TS as I was walking down the rows of TS's. I had looked for Blairs in this cemetery. Beard's were early settlers

My ancestor Brice Russell Blair was born 16 Jan.1808 in Tenn., died 14 May 1875 in Brown Co.,Ohio. He was twice married. First to Elizabeth Dimmitt of Clermont Co.,Ohio in 1828. She was born 15 Oct.1809, died 24 June 1851.
He married second Margaret Kirkpatrick who died Nov.1908 age 84 yrs. She is buried in Jamestown, Ohio.

They had seven children with three surviving. Dr.Mullen's death notice stated that Kitty died when the children were small. Do not know at this time where she is buried. I visited Dr.Mullen's grave on Oct.22, 1985. His son Charles V. (1869-1940 and daughter Velma (1868-1948), and husband James W.Hannah (1869-1940) are buried on the same lot. They were living with Dr.Mullen at the time of his death. There is another daughter, Nellie, who married Solomon Griffith, and lived at Bethel, Ohio. See reverse.

Children of John and Ethelena Pickerill Blair:

BRICE RUSSELL BLAIR married second MARGARET KIRKPATRICK who died Nov.1908, age 84 years. She is buried in Jamestown,Ohio. Children: MARY EMMA BLAIR (1852-1927)never married; CHARLES ALEXANDER BLAIR (20 June 1859-4 Jan.1889) md.----MORROW (1 child,no data); WILLIAM HALICK BLAIR (16 Apr.1857-11 Sept.1909)a newspaper publisher, md.EDITH SATTERFIELD, 1 daughter,Cathleen

Mary Emma is buried in the Old Georgetown Cemetery with her father as is Charles. William is buried at Jamestown. He was a newspaper publisher. Have a good biographical sketch that I found in Jamestown.

As you can see facts often change from what someone tells you to what further research proves.

Dr Eleanor Hiestand-Moore who did research for the old Blair Society which existed in the 1920's until about 1930 said Martha was from York Co, Pa, but most descendants say she was married in Irland. I am inclined to believe it is York Co, Pa, altho that can not be proven.

Polly Blair Beard was born in 1796 if she was 22 in 1818 when she died. Brice would have to be 21 to get married. So he would have been 21 in 1795 or maybe older.

Brice was sheriff of Washington Co, TN. Do not have proof that he was sheriff in Blount Co. He came to Ohio from Blount Co Tn.

Joseph married second Agnes Montgomery in Adams Co. There were Montgomerys living in Washington Co Tn. They may have migrated thru Ky as the family of Agnes came to Ohio from KY.

I had always thought that Polly was buried in Brown Co in an unmarked grave like her parents.

I had found Brice Russell Blair's Birth year as 1808, but the TS reads 1809.

Cathi Nichols, a descendant of Keziah's has an order ot a TS of Keziah (Kit so I will have to go back to Foster and see if there is one. I am not sure she had seven children. Family records do not show seven.

Anna May Wilkin's parents are buried in Olney, Ill. All research had been directed at Olney, Richland Co, Ill, but it kept coming back negative. Then I found a letter that her mother had written to her sister, Mag Eyler (Eylar) Potts. In it Anna's mother her sister to direct the mail to EDWARDA Co, ILL. So I checked the 1870 census for that county and found the family living in that Co in Samsville which is a few miles south of Olney. Her father probably had patients in Olney.

Considerable disappointment was expressed by many in this community when they learned that Mr. Frank Dunham, Jr., who was visiting relatives in Georgetown Saturday and Sunday, had business engagements with parties in Cincinnati, Monday, which would not permit him visiting among his many friends in the Camp Run neighborhood, where he first saw the light of day. He grew to manhood here and also his school days vere enjoyed at the Camp Run school. Mr. Dunham was a man among men from his boyhood days—handsome, refined in manners, pleasing in appearance and backed by a magnetic power that wherever he formed an acquaintance it meant a continuous friendship. He is engaged in farming upon a 820-acre claim in northwestern Canada, which he took up several years ago. May good luck accompany him throughout life's journey is the wish of his many Camp Run friends.

Elizabeth M. Campbell, daughter of John and Isabella Blair, was born near Georgetown, Ohio, May 23rd, 1832, and died February 12th, 1914, aged 81 years, 9 months and 20 days. She was married to H. B. Campbell, October 31st, 1849. To this union were born eight children, four sons and four daughters, of whom the four youngest, together with her husband, have preceded her to the other world. Mrs. Campbell had been afflicted for several years with Bright's disease, and also suffered two strokes of paralysis. But she bore her suffering patiently and on the evening of February 12th, she sank peacefully into that eternal rest, to those who die in the Lord. She united with the Presbyterian church at an early age, of which she was a faithful and consistent member and always attended upon the means of grace so long as she was able.

Her funeral took place at the home last Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. Her body was placed in the vault in the cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. C. Powell.

brazen and corrupt use of money Mark Hanna would not and could not be senator from Ohio. He has not a single attribute, trait, instinct or characteristic that gives him a single claim upon the Republican party. He has never performed a single act that has added a leaf or a laurel to the good name of his party, and his nature, training and instincts render it utterly impossible for him to ever do anything that will benefit the state or his party. For a brief space he swags up and down the political lines, boasting like Goliath, the Philistine, of his great powers. He has easily persuaded himself that he is all that is left of the Republican party, and he recently told a Republican member of the legislature who visited him in Cleveland that all his advices from the east showed that if he was not elected senator "there would be a terrible panic."

"Upon what a slender thread hang our terrestial things." When Hanna dies and goes to his grave, according to himself and Hop Lee, the Republican party will go with him.

Whenever it has suited Hanna's brutal pleasure he has bolted his party organization, as he did Foraker in 1889, and he has more than once repudiated his party and its platform.

By the corrupt use of money all over Ohio he destroyed all opposition within his own party and purchased the indorsement by the alleged Republican convention at Toledo. Mr. Hopley has said truly that no party can long survive the methods pursued by Hanna and his truculent henchmen at Toledo. That indorsement is binding on those whom Hanna bought, but not upon any honest, self-respecting Republican. It is an open insult to the dead and the living to compare Hanna to Lincoln, Sherman and Grant, and Harrison and Foraker.

The people of Ohio will hardly believe and can scarcely realize the amount of money Hanna spent to debauch his own party and purchase a seat in the United States Senate for business purposes and for "revenue only." No man but Dick can come near guessing. From the primaries to control the Toledo convention up to the close of the polls on the 2d day of November M. A. Hanna spent a round million of dollars in Ohio, but when we remember he was in a pool that cleared up from ten to fifteen millions of dollars in the Pacific railroad steal, this sum seems only a trifle.

$100,000 was spent to defeat the Foraker faction in the various counties of Ohio and capture the Republican convention and organization.

$50,000 was spent to buy the Populist party and run Coxey's campaign.

$25,000 was spent on the dissatisfied negroes.

$10,000 was spent to put the gold Democratic ticket in the field and to run a campaign.

$54,000 was spent by the regular Republican committee according to the sworn statement of the treasurer.

There is $239,000 spent, not to achieve the success of a great party and its principles, but to stifle the will of the people in a free government and to promote the success of an agent of corporations, combinations and trusts, who favors every measure opposed to the interests of the common people, and in violation of the principles of [illegible]. Before the selection the campaign managers in charge at Democratic headquarters prepared an estimate of [illegible] money they would have to contend with in the various counties of Ohio. Information received since the election shows that in many instances this was too small. This list is as follows:

Adams	$ 2,000	Logan	4,000
Allen	3,000	Lorain	8,000
Ashland	1,000	Lucas	16,000

Thus the market is pretty well sustained and but little change in prices can be quoted. There was no reduction in the stocks of the warehouses during the last two weeks, receipts having been quite liberal up to within the beginning of the present week, since when there have been only light shipments, and as there are three weeks of sales in the present year as yet the first of January will probably find us with lighter stocks than the beginning of the present month. The offerings showed only a small proportion of the better grades, and this fact probably accounts for the somewhat lower averave which was realized. There were some lots of the new crop which commanded unabated interest, and prices obtained were highly satisfactory in nearly every case, one crop lot of 5 hogsheads from Carroll county bringing an average of 12 cents, the lower and medium grades selling highest in proportion, as will be seen by the range, which was from $7.15 to $14.75. These figures, if upheld, and we see no reason why they should not be, will induce early shipments, and, the weather permitting, we may expect the new crop in market ahead of the usual time. Offerings, for week, 2,016; rejections, 509; actual sales, 1,507; receipts, 1,100. The following are a few of the sales recorded during the past week: A. H. Shinkle, 11 hogsheads, averaging $13.11. P. Wahl, 7 hogsheads, averaging $11.96. Chas. Love, 3 hogsheads, averaging $15.41. V. K. Thompson, 2 hogsheads, averaging $12.75.

Bas. Campbell at Home.

Henry B. Campbell, who shot and killed Marshal Whittaker in this place in May, 1887, and who plead guilty to murder in the second degree and received a life sentence to the penitentiary therefor, had his sentence commuted to a fifteen years and six months' term by the State Board of Pardons, at its meeting last week. Deductions for good conduct reduced his term so that he was eligible to discharge last Friday and he was accordingly released. He is now at his home in this place, having arrived Sunday evening. He is said to be 71 years of age.

(if sentence 15 yr. 6 mo. would be 74 yo.)

Creditors' Sale of Clothing.

In another column of this issue will be found the "ad" of the creditors' sale of A. M. Martin, clothier and outfitter, 342 and 344 West Fifth street, Cincinnati, Ohio. Coming as it does in December just in the beginning of the winter season and inasmuch as this sale is made by the creditors for the purpose of converting the stock into cash, and exceptional grand opportunity will be afforded the readers of this paper to make their dollars do double duty. No better chance than now presents itself to purchase Christmas presents at less than 50 cents on the dollar.

DIED SUDDENLY

Bascom Campbell Answers Final Call at His Home on North Street Friday.

Henry Bascom Campbell passed away quietly Friday afternoon. He was buried on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. He was 85 years old, and was born at Ripley, in February, 1827. His parents came from Virginia. He was the last of a large family. He was married in 1850 to Miss Elizabeth M. Blair, who survives him, with four children, eleven grandchildren and four great grandchildren. He has been a resident of Georgetown for many years, and has been engaged at different times as printer, carpenter and farmer, but he is especially noted for his military and war record. He fought in the Civil War of 1861 to 1865. He enlisted under President Lincoln's first call for three months' men, and was a member of the 59th O. V. I. He re-enlisted in the cavalry service for three years of the war, and was enrolled in the Independent Brigade known as Foster's Cavalry. He saw much hard service and proved a soldier of the finest courage and the most dauntless bravery and endurance. He fought under Grant, Sherman and McPherson. He marched with Sherman through Georgia, in his famous march from Atlanta to the sea, through the very heart of the confederacy, capturing Savannah, defeating Johnson and finally after the surrender of Lee joined in the grand parade through Washington of Grant and Sherman's armies as the war closed and the boys came marching home. He was quietly laid to rest on a beautiful Sabbath afternoon, in the presence of a large assemblage of family, relatives and friends. Rev. Dr. Hench conducted the funeral services.

—LAST week the demand for extra copies of the NEWS was great. Altho we printed three or four extra quires of paper, every extra copy was called for before Friday night, and on Saturday several others called for copies which we could not supply. Everybody wants to see and read the NEWS, whether they are regular subscribers or not.

—POOR CLINON CAMPBELL is no more. He came to his death by no rash act of his, though unnatural and revolting its cause was. Whether the shot he received was intended for him or not, the result is all the same—he died from its deadly effect. Thus another household is clothed in mourning and in sorrow which cannot be assuaged. It is bereft of a dutiful son and kind brother, and one who greatly assisted the family in the struggles of life. He was industrious, well-behaved, and of good habits.

Clinton Campbell died on Wednesday evening, March 9, 1881, aged about 19 years. On Friday the 11th he was buried by the Thompson Light Guards, of which he was a member. The funeral services were performed by Rev. Van Dyke and Rev. Varity. It was an unusually solemn occasion, owing to the peculiar circumstances which caused it. Everything attending the funeral was neatly and courteously as well as solemnly and appropriately conducted.

—MR. WM. CHRISTIE DOWDNEY died at his residence in Georgetown on last Monday morning at about 4 o'clock. He was about 45 years of age, and leaves a wife and five children—three girls and two boys—to mourn their loss. He was brother to Judge S. F. Dowdney, of Batavia. Christie had a host of friends in this community, and, notwithstanding his independent, outspoken and blunt manner, he had few if any enemies. He was a man of excellent good common sense, and under more favorable circumstances would have made his mark in the world as a man of ability if not of genius. His disease was of a pulmonary character, and he had been confined to his room for several weeks. He was an old citizen of Georgetown, and had experienced many scenes connected with her history. He was a man possessing a kind heart and obliging nature, and was an indulgent husband and father.—He will be greatly missed in this community.

RAILROAD MATTERS.

Judge Cowen's Railroad Decision.

The Ripley Bee and Times of last wee[illegible] says: "The united efforts of Georgetown aided by a volunteer or two from Ripley was sufficient to get a decision advers[illegible] to our hopes."

We presume Judge Cowen decided th[illegible] case before him according to the law an[illegible] the Constitution, as he understands them —just as any other Judge would hav[illegible] done. The decision was not "got" by Georgetown or the one or two volunteers from Ripley, but because it was law. The case was before the Court and th[illegible] Court disposed of it.

Again the Bee says: "Last week an application was made by Ripley, to th[illegible] Court at Georgetown for the appointment of three Trustees for our short-lin[illegible] Railroad, and the application being opposed by the authorities of Georgetown. Judge Cowen refused to appoint them We have hardly patience to write any thing about this farce, this interferin[illegible] with a great public enterprise by those who had no business in the matter whatever. What matter is it to Georgetown if Ripley builds half a dozen railroads? Has she the right to dictate to us what we shall do in such matters?"

We suppose by the "farce" is meant Judge Cowen's decision. Farce or no farce, we presume Judge Cowen rendered his decision in conformity to the law and the facts. The Bee intimates that Georgetown PROCURED the decision. That if Georgetown had not opposed the appointment of the trustees the Court would have appointed them. Now, so far as Judge Cowen is concerned, we will say this for him: he never decides cases to favor friends or punish enemies. This decision was not made to favor Georgetown or to punish Ripley. It was made because he believed it to be law. If Ripley and Georgetown had occupied adverse relations to what they did, the decision would have been the same—no doubt about that.

Of course it is none of Georgetown's business if Ripley does build half a dozen or a hundred railroads. Nor has Georgetown a right to "dictate" to Ripley. Nor has she done so. All that Georgetown has done was, to try and have Ripley live up to her solemn pledges and promises made to Georgetown, before a dollar was expended on the road between Georgetown and Sardinia, and upon which promises and plighted faith the money was raised and expended by Georgetown in grading that road, as we shall presently show. This is all there is in the case, and the gentlemen managing the Ripley matter know it. If Ripley had, at the start, said to Georgetown that they did not intend to build a road to Georgetown, of course the latter would have known then how to proceed, and
